

CIP4 JDF MATRIX – Update Form

The JDF Matrix is one of the most widely used and frequently consulted informational tool on the CIP4 website. This tool allows visitors to quickly identify which products are JDF compatible. CIP4 strongly encourages you to update the information today and gain more visibility for your products. Simply fill out this form and send it to marketing-officer@cip4.org. Please fill out one form per product with up to 10 compatible products.

Basic Information

Company name

Company website

Product name

Product website

System Type

Interface Type

Self-Certification

If you have self-certified your product, please select all ICS versions with which it is compatible:

ICS Version

ICS Version

ICS Version

ICS Version

ICS Version

ICS Version

ICS Version

ICS Version

Compatible Product

Company name

Product name

System Type

Integration status

Compatible Product

Company name

Product name

System Type

Integration status

Compatible Product

Company name

Product name

System Type

Integration status

Compatible Product

Company name

Product name

System Type

Integration status

Compatible Product

Company name

Product name

System Type

Integration status

Compatible Product

Company name

Product name

System Type

Integration status

Compatible Product

Company name

Product name

System Type

Integration status

Compatible Product

Company name

Product name

System Type

Integration status

Compatible Product

Company name

Product name

System Type

Integration status

Compatible Product

Company name

Product name

System Type

Integration status